From the Principal

Dear Parents,

Welcome to Mernda Hills Christian College, a co-educational school that provides values-based Christian education for students from Foundation to Year 12. Our college is part of a wider network of institutions connected to the Seventh-day Adventist Church, including schools, universities and hospitals across Australia and the world. We prioritise our students and their holistic development in becoming young people with the skills to fulfil their God-given potential.

Students are encouraged to see themselves as members of a community where they belong, where they can learn more about God and the world around them. Our students are supported to establish and maintain respectful relationships with each other and are equipped to demonstrate responsibility for themselves, their learning, and their role as active members of the community.

Delivered within a Christian worldview, education programs at Mernda Hills align with the Australian Curriculum and meet Victorian Curriculum And Assessment Authority (VCAA) requirements for VCE. Our teachers demonstrate an attitude of lifelong learning in their own development and model what this looks like to our students in their learning spaces. Students are encouraged to see themselves as lifelong learners, actively engaging in their academic pursuits and remaining curious when exploring new ideas and perspectives.

Whether engaging with stimulating academic content, navigating new friendships, experiencing personal growth through our Learning 4 Life program or competing honourably in our sports program, Mernda Hills Christian College promotes the development of resilience and a growth mindset. These opportunities allow our students to explore new interests and develop their character, while discovering how they can flourish and contribute meaningfully to their communities.

This prospectus provides some initial information about the program we offer to students. We look forward to speaking with you further about the opportunities Mernda Hills can offer your child.

Kind regards,

Kristin Forbes

Principal

Spiritual Culture and Wellbeing

Spiritual Culture

Mernda Hills Christian College is a multicultural school, catering to students of all cultural and religious backgrounds. Prospective families are not expected to share the religious beliefs of the College, but are expected to acknowledge and uphold the values of the school and participate in compulsory activities such as worships, religious studies and the chapel program.

As our crest suggests, spiritual development is the underlying focus of everything that we do at Mernda Hills. Biblical values influence policy and practice, and a holistic view of personal growth, including the spiritual component, directs our educational processes. In addition to this, we strive to support the physical and emotional components of an individual's life to ensure their overall wellbeing and development.

Our Values

We believe that these four values are essential in becoming excellent learners that demonstrate integrity and Christian character:

1. Being Respectful: "We think about others" – Treating others the way we wish to be treated and caring for others in the community, and our environment.
2. Being Responsible: "We own our actions" – Being responsible for our actions, learning from all decisions and making great choices.
3. Being Resilient: "We bounce back" – Developing a growth mindset with a never give up attitude.
4. Being a Learner: "We learn and grow" – Being a lifelong learner is an important aspect of all educational journeys. Developing an attitude of learning in all subject areas is vital to developing students of excellence.

Chaplains and Wellbeing

Chaplains are employed to provide spiritual nurture for staff and students and are heavily invested in the emotional well-being of all associated with the College. They are available to discuss issues and can refer to appropriate agencies when needed. Their work includes organising chapels, visiting classes, conducting Bible studies, and counselling.

The Wellbeing team ensures cognitive, emotional, social, physical, and spiritual needs are met, working collaboratively with teachers and families. The counsellor works with students (Foundation to Year 12) experiencing challenges, providing short-term intervention and check-in support.

Transport and Care Services

School Bus

The College runs a small bus service for drop off and pick up in nearby suburbs, catering for before and after school pick up every day. Casual or short term usage of this service is not currently available. Due to high demand, placement on the bus is not guaranteed with enrolment and is subject to current seating and route. New applicants for the bus may be placed on a waiting list. Additional costs apply for this service as per the fee schedule.

Public Transport

A public bus line runs past the school between the Craigieburn and Mernda train stations. The school is a short walk from the nearest bus stop.

- Route: 390
- Nearest Bus Stop: Heddle Pde/Sackville St
- Distance from Bus Stop to School: Approx. 350 metres

OSHC (Outside School Hours Care)

Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) is the program established to provide care for children of parents whose work commitments prevent them from regular drop off and pick up arrangements. OSHC operates from 7-8:45am and 3:30-6pm during school terms.

The OSHC program is mainly, but not exclusively, for primary-aged students. OSHC staff are trained and qualified and ensure that healthy activities, food and entertainment are provided when appropriate. OSHC payments are not included in College fees and separate arrangements must be made.

Study Club

The Study Club was established to ensure that secondary students have a place where learning can be supervised after school. The Study Club is housed in the Library, supervised by teaching staff and operates from the end of school to 4:30pm on Monday to Thursday.

Students are supervised in Study Club while they are waiting to be picked up by their parents, or they may be sent to the Study Club by teachers when they have not completed their homework or assignments. Study Club is not a place for afternoon social gatherings and students who are not there to work will be asked to focus or make their way home.

Nutrition At School

The Food Policy

Based on Biblical principles of health and the Seventh-day Adventist health message, all food provided by or associated with the College (canteen, camps, excursions, fundraising) is wholly vegetarian. The Primary school also has a "fruit and veg only" rule for recess time to encourage better health habits. Students may still bring foods of their choice for their own consumption.

The Canteen

The purpose of the canteen is to provide healthy, wholesome vegetarian meals and snacks, avoiding excessive sugar and salt. Lunch orders are placed via the Spriggy Schools app before school commences. The canteen operates on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday during school terms.

School Readiness

School readiness refers to whether a child is ready to make an easy and successful transition into school. While many people think of academics (eg. writing their name or counting to 10) as the important school readiness skills, school readiness actually refers to a much broader range of skills including self care (eg. independent toileting), attention and concentration, physical skills, emotional regulation, language skills and play and social skills.

Why are school readiness skills important?

The development of school readiness skills allows school teachers to further develop a child's skills. Without these basic skills already established upon entry to school, children can very quickly find themselves playing 'catch up' compared to their peers that are advancing more quickly. Students that begin school with the building block skills in place advance quickly compared to those that don't.

What are the building blocks necessary to develop school readiness?

- Self Regulation: The ability to obtain, maintain and change emotion, behaviour, attention and activity level appropriate for a task or situation (eg. not throwing a tantrum when they are unhappy).
- Sensory processing: Accurate processing of sensory stimulation that influences attention and learning. This affects how you sit, hold a pencil and listen to the teacher.
- Receptive language (understanding): Comprehension of spoken language (eg. the teacher's instructions).
- Expressive language (using language): Producing speech or language that can be understood by others.
- Executive functioning: Higher order reasoning and thinking skills (eg. What do I need to pack to take to school?).
- Social skills: The ability to engage in interaction with others (either verbally or non-verbally), to compromise with others and to be able to recognise and follow social norms.
- Planning and sequencing: The ability to perform sequential multi-step tasks (eg. completing a cut-and-paste task or following a set of instructions).

See more: childdevelopment.com.au

How can I tell if my child has problems with school readiness?

If a child has difficulties with school readiness they might:

- Get easily frustrated when expectations are placed upon them.
- Struggle to follow instructions in daily activities.
- Rely on parents to do self care tasks, such as dressing, eating or toileting.
- Struggle to pay attention to tasks as long as their peers.
- Be socially immature (eg. unable to share, uncontrolled behaviour when unhappy).
- Have difficulty understanding consequences of their behaviours.
- Not interact well with their peers (either in or out of the classroom).
- Be resistant to new activities and/or being guided about how to develop new skills.

What can be done to improve school readiness skills?

In the lead up to school start, the following activities can be helpful:

- Parenting expectations: Increase expectations of the child around self care tasks such as dressing, toileting, eating, and getting ready to leave the house. Provide only verbal rather than physical 'help' to complete the tasks where possible.
- Social skills: Encourage the child to develop relationships with other (unfamiliar) children of a similar age, and arrange suitable 'play dates' for social interaction practice where the adults actively facilitate this play practice.
- Books: Expose the child to books to prepare them for literacy so they learn to enjoy and sit through the entirety of a book.
- Early preparation: Start preparing the child for school by talking about expectations at school, appropriate behaviour, and regularly engaging in 'sit down' activities.
- Collaboration: Work with the child's preschool teacher to identify any areas of slow development so that these areas can be targeted before the child starts school.
- Visual strategies: Use visuals (such as picture schedules) to help the child understand the routine of their day both at home and at kindergarten.
- Fine motor skill development: This is an area that will be a large part of the activities undertaken at school, so developing these skills will enable the child to participate in activities much more easily and willingly. This means they should practice cutting, colouring, drawing, and writing their name.

Bush School

For the first eight or ten years of a child's life, the field or garden is the best schoolroom... nature the best lesson book. - Ellen G White - Child Guidance

Foundation students engage in Bush School once a week starting in Term 2. Here they are given the opportunity to engage in open-ended, diverse and meaningful learning that is connected to the curriculum and gives them a greater appreciation of God's creation.

Bush School gives children the opportunity to discover nature for themselves, finding insects in trees or under rocks, observing birds and animals, splashing in puddles, and building shelters. Students are encouraged to explore, cooperate, build and learn together. Some of the benefits to learning in an outdoor environment include:

Authentic learning and independent thinking

Hands-on experiences and open ended communication fosters rich and meaningful learning. This allows for more complex and self-directed lines of inquiry and observation from the students.

Social skills and relationships

Children gravitate towards common interests and as a result may interact with peers who they might not normally in the classroom. It encourages the development of curiosity, cooperation and negotiation, problem solving, courage and supportiveness. They develop a stronger sense of belonging within their school community in this environment.

Confidence

Being at Bush School isn't just for the physically capable students. In this environment, every child can find a sense of mastery at a level they are confident with, and explore things they may not encounter in everyday life.

Literacy and Numeracy Skills

The rich interactions students have at Bush School encourage development of oral language and vocabulary. This environment also allows students to experience and explore concepts of numbers, patterns measurement, spatial awareness, data, reasoning, counting and mathematical thinking.

Physical Development and Wellbeing

Fine and gross motor skills, core-strength, coordination, balance and physical endurance are all enhanced when the students engage in the diversity of experiences in an outdoor learning environment such as Bush School.

Decreased Anxiety and Negative Behaviours

Evidence shows that time spent outside enjoying nature can reduce stress, lessen aggression, and boost energy and attention.

Devices

Mernda Hills uses the G-Suite for Education as the digital collaboration platform. From Foundation - Year 4, devices are provided by the school for use as a tool for learning in the classroom. From Year 5, students will require a school-approved laptop to participate in the school curriculum.

The following arrangements are currently in place to facilitate appropriate, reliable and cost effective digital access for all students.

- Year 5-8 students: Specific Chromebook and bag are required and are purchased via this link.
- Year 9-12 students: Macbook Air - Students/families pay a deposit to the College and receive a Macbook Air device for use. At the end of Year 12, students/families may pay an additional fee to buy out the device, or alternatively can return the device to the College.

Any student breach of the Acceptable Use Agreement may lead to the loss of device use privileges at the College.

Charged battery is the responsibility of the student to have their device charged before each school day starts; chargers and extension cords are not permitted in the classroom as they become tripping hazards. They are also not practical when moving between rooms for each lesson.

Laptop bags including the cross-body strap must be used to prevent damage or dropping when moving between classrooms. Year 5-8 laptop cases are prescribed in the purchasing portal and have been chosen based on durability, functionality and cost-efficiency.

Devices are not to be used outside of the classroom unless instructed to do so by a teacher, including during break times.

Network settings are in place to promote learning and protect students. The internet at Mernda Hills is filtered through our onsite firewall. Students must always use the Mernda Hills network while on campus and must never use a hotspot unless directed by a teacher. Mernda Hills network settings will only apply to devices while they are on the school network or during school times.

The IT Helpdesk has a limited number of Chromebooks that can be borrowed for a small fee for a lesson in the event of a student's own device being temporarily unavailable. These devices cannot be borrowed overnight or during school holidays. This service is for short term use only and students needing to borrow for more than one day will need to show evidence of their device being logged for repair.

Chromebook repairs for devices purchased through the portal need to be logged with LWT: service@lwt.com.au ph 1300 556 788 and may be covered under warranty/insurance, depending on what the family paid for at the time of purchase.

Replacement laptops for Years 5-8 must be purchased through the order portal.
